ROBERT MANTELL COMING TO SALT LAKE THEATRE

On his first tour of the West in four seasons Robert B. Mantell, the leading classic tragedian on the English speaking stage, is stopping for an entire week at the Salt Lake Theatre.

ater, Salt Lake City, beginning on Monday, March 18. This is the longest engagement Mr. Mantell will ever have played in Salt Lake City, his stay there heretofore having been limited to three days. On his last previous visit here, however, he was so successful that he decided to stay a week this time in order that he might be able to present a larger number of plays in a repertoire more extensive and formidable than any habitually offered by a tragedian since Booth.

Mr. Mantell carries complete and elaborate scenic equipment for all his plays, and is surrounded by a company of thirty-three actors and actresses chosen from the best classic talent available on both sides of the Atlantic.

The engagement will open with "Richelleu" by Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, the only non-Shakespearean play in the Salt Lake repertoire. This drama is peculiarly timely in that it deals with a period of storm and stress in French history similar to that through which the war torn country is passing. Cardinal Richelleu by a diplomacy strikingly similar to that of Lloyd George and President Wilson today saved France from political intrigue and preserved her to be a power among nations.

The play tells the story of a conspiracy that sought to overthrow the Cardinal Statesman and his government and involves a romantic love plot.

"Richelleu" will be repeated Wednesday night. The Shakespearean plays of the week are, Hamlet, Tuesday night; Romeo and Juliet, at a popular dollar Wednesday matinee; King Lear, Thursday night; Macbeth, Friday night; Merchant of Venice, Saturday afternoon, and Richard Third, Saturday night.

Prepare for Sudden Deeds.
We prepare ourselves for sudden deeds by the reiterated choice of good or evil which gradually determines character.—George Eliot.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!
